Crane Co. Reiterates Proposal to Deliver Significant Value to CIRCOR Shareholders

- Crane Co. remains firmly committed to pursuing its proposal to acquire CIRCOR
- CIRCOR shareholders have expressed strong support for engagement and frustration with status quo following Crane's May 21, 2019 Investor Call
- Proposal presents a compelling opportunity for CIRCOR shareholders to realize immediate and certain value
- Willing to adjust proposal if CIRCOR Board engages and provides justification

Stamford, Conn. – June 4, 2019 – Crane Co. (NYSE: CR), a diversified manufacturer of highly engineered industrial products, today sent a letter to the Board of Directors of CIRCOR International, Inc. (NYSE: CIR) in which Crane Co. reaffirmed its desire to enter into meaningful discussions regarding a transaction that would provide a significant premium for CIRCOR shareholders. This letter follows the CIRCOR Board of Directors' rejection of Crane Co.'s initial $45 per share all-cash proposal without comment or discussion.

The full text of the letter can be found below:

June 4, 2019

Dear Members of the CIRCOR Board of Directors:

I write to reiterate Crane Co.'s strong interest in acquiring CIRCOR International, Inc. in an all-cash transaction. We continue to believe that our proposal to acquire CIRCOR represents a compelling opportunity for CIRCOR shareholders, providing a significant premium and certainty of value. Market reaction and feedback from CIRCOR shareholders indicate strong support for engagement and frustration with the status quo.

We continue to believe our proposal of $45 per share is full and fair based on public information available to us. We are willing, however, to consider adjusting the price in our proposal if CIRCOR management engages with us and provides sufficient justification.

When the Board of Directors rejected our proposal, it did so without any comment or invitation for a discussion. CIRCOR's subsequent press release, which was issued in response to Crane's public disclosure of its proposal, provided no significant rationale for its rejection. The absence of a substantive response from the Board of Directors was a disservice to CIRCOR shareholders.

We are fully committed to pursuing our proposal. Given the strength of CIRCOR shareholder support, absent engagement, we will assess additional actions available to us in furtherance of the proposed transaction.

This is a compelling opportunity to provide your shareholders with certainty of value at a significant premium, and to offer your employees and customers the ability to thrive under Crane Co.'s stewardship. We urge the Board of Directors to honor their fiduciary duties and promptly engage in meaningful, good-faith discussions with us.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Max H. Mitchell
